

Strava Global Heatmap – Activity data

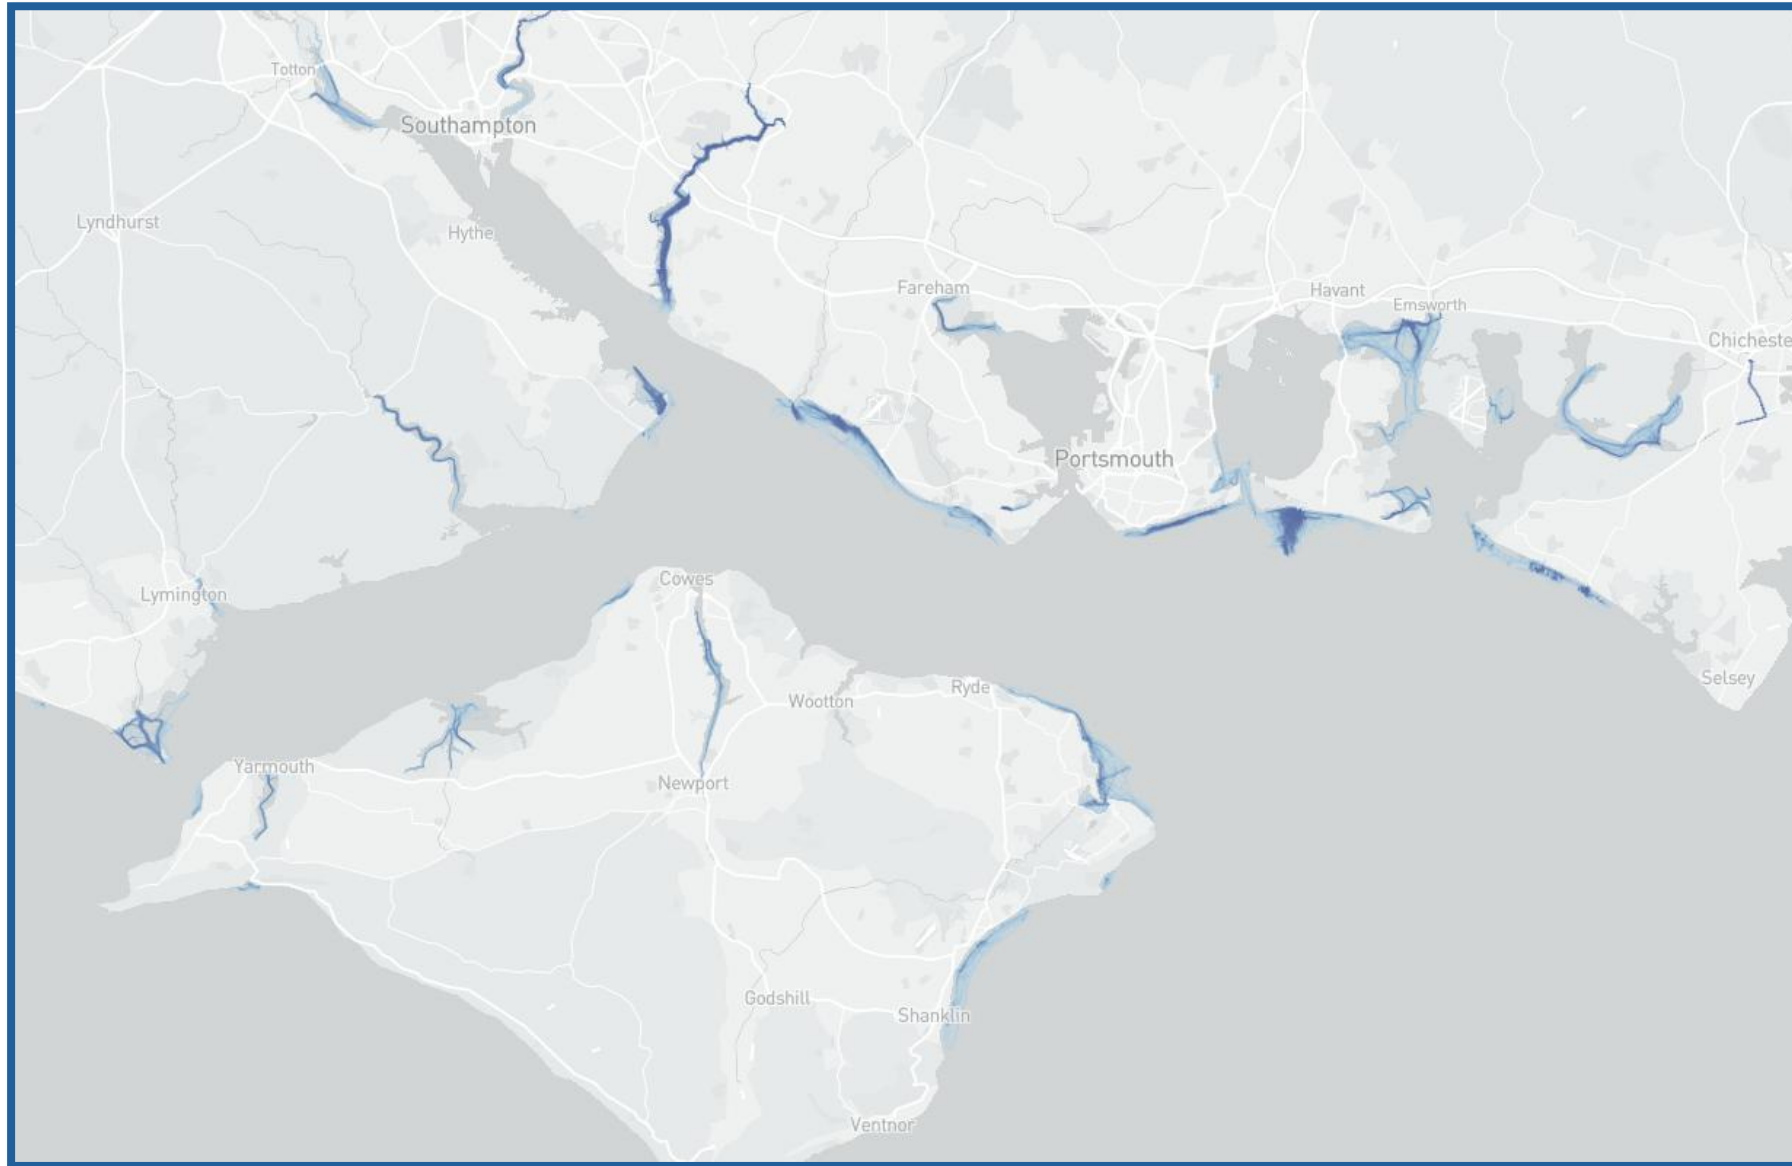

Key Details:

- Timescale: Last 12 months of public, aggregated activity data.
- Update Frequency: Monthly.
- Data Source: Only includes activities that users have set to public.
- Privacy: Excludes private activities and respects privacy zones.

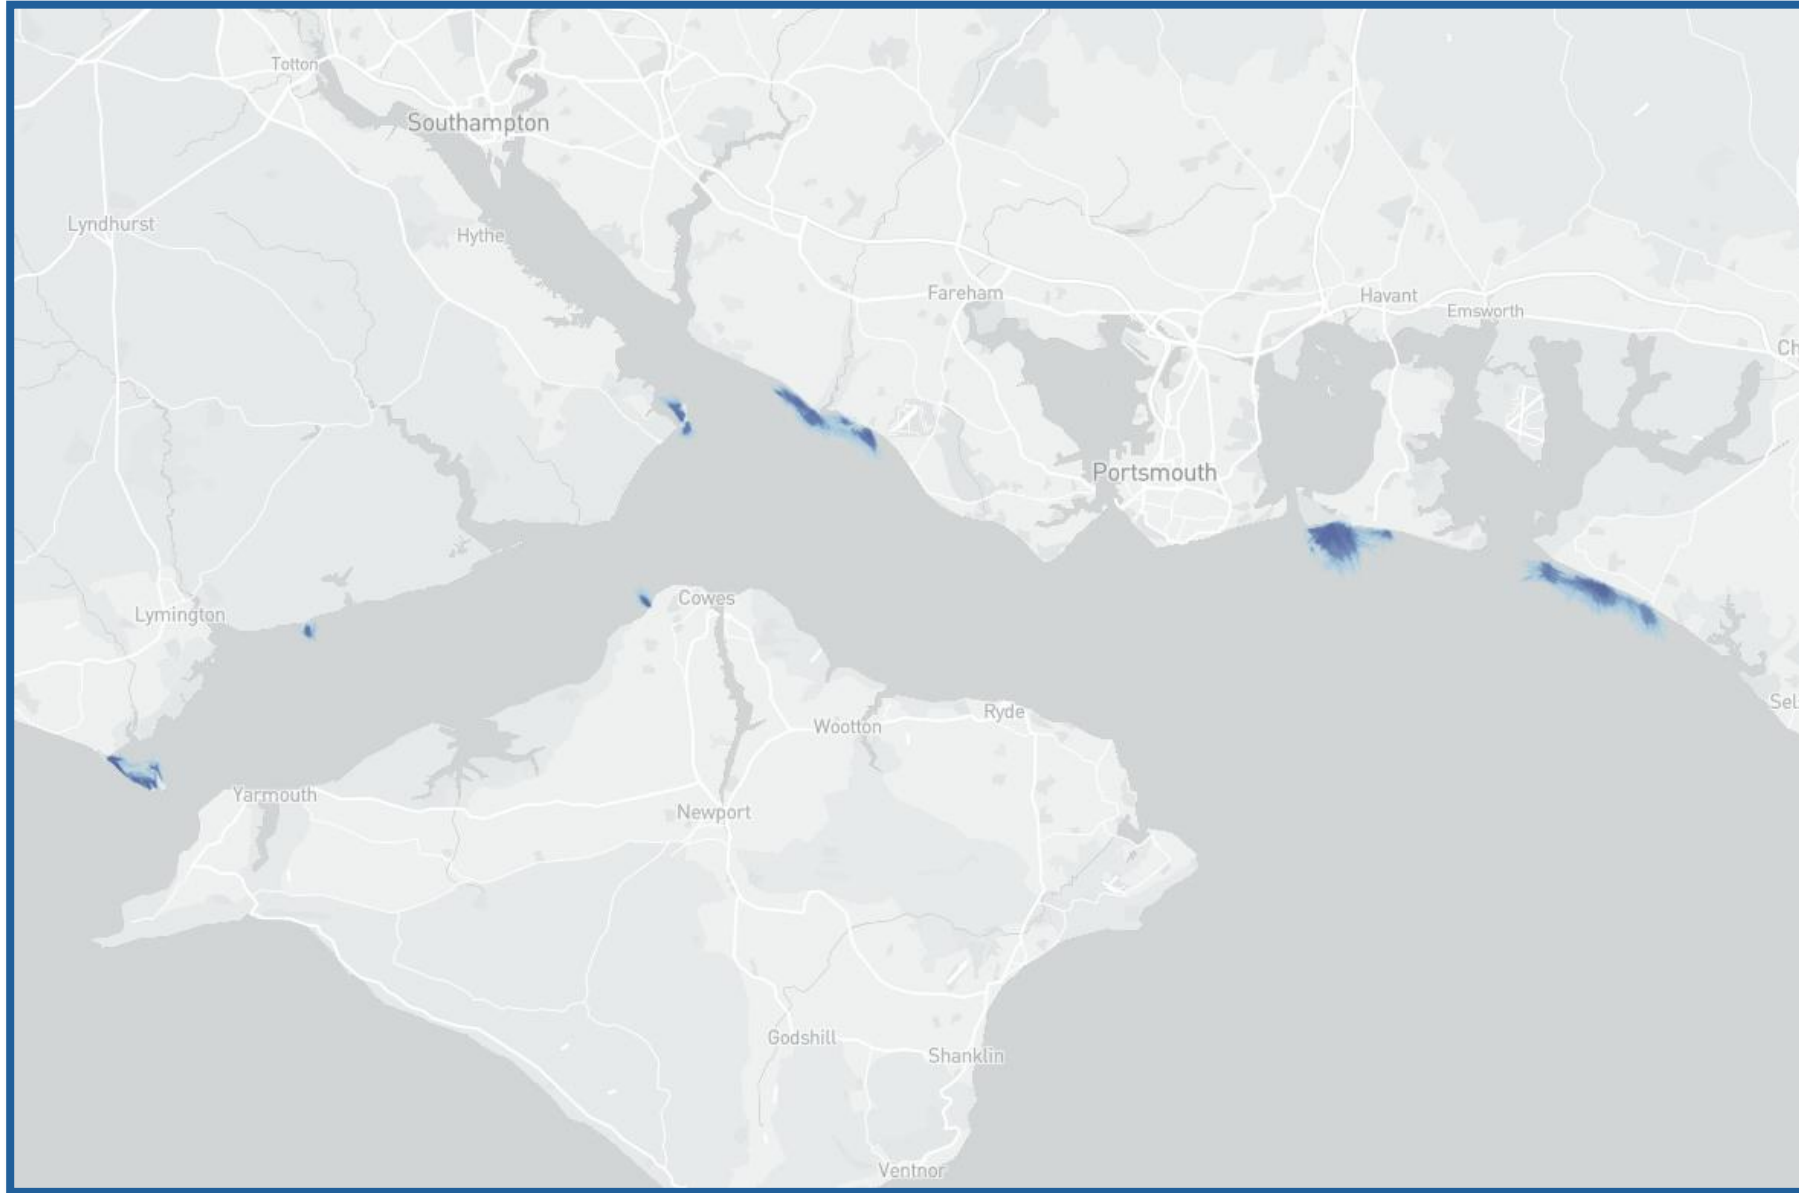

The heatmap reflects recent trends in where people are taking part in an activity, rather than long-term historical data. The darker the line the more activity that is taking place.
